

70+ Tourist Centres in Nigeria and Their Location

Nzepro Lifestyle 0

Spread the love

Nigeria is a country rich in culture, history, and natural beauty, making it a great destination for tourists. From breathtaking landscapes to historic landmarks, there is something for everyone. Below is a list of 70 tourist centres in Nigeria along with their locations. This guide is designed to help you discover the beauty and diversity of Nigeria in simple terms.

Contents
70 Tourist Attractions In Nigeria
1. Olumo Rock – Abeokuta, Ogun State
2. Lekki Conservation Centre – Lagos
3. Zuma Rock – Niger State
4. Nike Art Gallery – Lagos
5. Benin City Walls – Edo State
6. Ogbunike Caves – Anambra State
7. National Arts Theatre – Lagos
8. Ikogosi Warm Springs – Ekiti State
9. Erin Ijesha Waterfalls – Osun State
10. Aso Rock – Abuja
11. Yankari National Park – Bauchi State
12. Tinapa Resort – Cross River State
13. Freedom Park – Lagos
14. Agodi Gardens – Oyo State
15. Gurara Falls – Niger State
16. Tarkwa Bay Beach – Lagos
17. Jos Wildlife Park – Plateau State
18. Omenka Gallery – Lagos
19. Badagry Slave Trade Route – Lagos
20. Kajuru Castle – Kaduna State
21. Alok Ikom Monoliths – Cross River State
22. Jabi Lake – Abuja
23. Millennium Park – Abuja
24. Coconut Beach – Lagos
25. Ibeno Beach – Akwa Ibom State
26. Lekki Beach – Lagos
27. Eyo Festival – Lagos
28. New Afrika Shrine – Lagos
29. Osun-Osogbo Sacred Grove – Osun State
30. Oguta Lake Holiday Complex – Imo State
31. IITA Forest Reserve – Oyo State
32. Obudu Mountain Resort – Cross River State
33. Abuja National Mosque – Abuja
34. Lekki Ikoyi Link Bridge – Lagos
35. Port Harcourt Tourist Beach – Rivers State
36. Emotan Statue – Edo State
37. Oron Museum – Akwa Ibom State

Search  Search

Recent Posts

- 10+ Beautiful Beaches and Resorts in Badagry
- Top 30+ Historical Sites in Nigeria and Their Locations
- Top 16 Romantic Places to Go on a Date in Ibadan
- Ibadan Postal Code- Ologuneru, Oluyole, Ibadan North and Others
- Imo State Nigeria Postal Code 2024

Recent Comments

- Silas Y. Gani on Own It Now: Top Mortgage Banks in Nigeria (2024)
- Nzepro on Own It Now: Top Mortgage Banks in Nigeria (2024)

Categories

- Area guide
- Lifestyle
- News
- Real Estate

Abuja Agege Ajangbadi Ajegunle Akoka Alaba
 Amusement Parks Anambra Apapa Awka
 Badagry Bariga Beaches Delta Enugu Epe
 Fadeyi History House ibadan Ifako-Ijaiye

Ikorodu Area Imo Lagos
 Land For Sale In Anambra Land For Sale In Delta
 Land For Sale In Lagos Nigeria
 Land Sale Imo Land Sale Ogun lounges and clubs Mushin
 Nigeria Ojo Okokomaiko Oshodi Oyo

Places in Lagos
Postal Codes Property Listings Sites
 Real Estate Law Resorts Shomolu Somolu Universities
 Victoria Island

38. Ahmadu Bello University Zoo – Kaduna State
39. Yola Park – Adamawa State
40. Ibom Tropicana Entertainment Centre – Akwa Ibom State
41. Ojude Oba Festival – Ogun State
42. Ikom Monoliths – Cross River State
43. Sukur Cultural Landscape – Adamawa State
44. Elegushi Beach – Lagos
45. The Cathedral Church of Christ – Lagos
46. Eko Atlantic City – Lagos
47. Confluence of Rivers Niger and Benue – Kogi State
48. Nike Lake Resort – Enugu State
49. Mambilla Plateau – Taraba State
50. Kwame Nkrumah Mausoleum – Niger State
51. National War Museum – Abia State
52. Zik's Mausoleum – Anambra State
53. Kainji National Park – Niger State
54. Ijele Masquerade Festival – Anambra State
55. Ezeagu Tourist Complex – Enugu State
56. Kofar Mata Dye Pits – Kano State
57. Kano City Walls – Kano State
58. Gashaka Gumti National Park – Taraba State
59. Ogbaukwu Caves and Waterfalls – Anambra State
60. Shere Hills – Plateau State
61. Port Harcourt Pleasure Park – Rivers State
62. Iho Eleru Cave – Ondo State
63. Bayelsa State Ecumenical Centre – Bayelsa State
64. Okomu National Park – Edo State
65. Edo State Government House – Edo State
66. Oguta Lake – Imo State
67. Idanre Hills – Ondo State
68. Port Harcourt Zoo – Rivers State
69. Zuma Memorial – Niger State
70. Jabi Boat Club – Abuja
71. Royal Palace of Oba of Benin – Edo State
72. Queen Amina's Wall – Kaduna State
73. Ancient Kano City Walls – Kano State
74. Ngwo Pine Forest – Enugu State
75. Awhum Waterfall – Enugu State
76. The Giant Footprint of Ukhuse Oke – Edo State
77. Gashaka-Gumti National Park – Taraba State

Top 10 Tourist Centres in Nigeria

1. Obudu Mountain Resort – Cross River State
2. Yankari National Park – Bauchi State
3. Olumo Rock – Abeokuta, Ogun State
4. Ogbunike Caves – Anambra State
5. Aso Rock – Abuja
6. Ngwo Pine Forest and Awhum Waterfall – Enugu State
7. Zuma Rock – Niger State
8. Erin Ijesha Waterfalls (Olumirin Waterfalls) – Osun State
9. Osun-Osogbo Sacred Grove – Osun State
10. Idanre Hills – Ondo State

70 Tourist Attractions In Nigeria

1. Olumo Rock – Abeokuta, Ogun State

Olumo Rock is a massive granite rock formation in Abeokuta, serving as both a historical monument and a tourist attraction. It was a refuge during inter-tribal wars in the 19th century.

2. Lekki Conservation Centre – Lagos

This nature reserve in Lagos is perfect for those who love wildlife and tranquility. The centre features a canopy walkway, the longest in Africa, offering a bird's-eye view of the surroundings.

3. Zuma Rock – Niger State

Zuma Rock, often referred to as the "Gateway to Abuja," is a large monolith in Niger State. It's known for its distinct human-like face visible on its surface.

Advertisements

4. Nike Art Gallery – Lagos

Located in Lagos, Nike Art Gallery is one of the largest art galleries in Nigeria. It showcases contemporary Nigerian art, including paintings, sculptures, and textiles. see Famous Tourist places In Lagos

5. Benin City Walls – Edo State

The Benin City Walls in Edo State are a series of earthworks made up of banks and ditches, built to protect the ancient Benin Kingdom.

6. Ogbunike Caves – Anambra State

These caves in Anambra State are a UNESCO World Heritage Site and hold cultural significance for the people of the region. They consist of a network of tunnels and chambers.

7. National Arts Theatre – Lagos

The National Arts Theatre in Lagos is an iconic building that hosts cultural events and performances. It is a center for performing arts in Nigeria.

Advertisements

8. Ikogosi Warm Springs – Ekiti State

Ikogosi Warm Springs in Ekiti State is a natural wonder where warm and cold springs meet without mixing. It's a perfect spot for relaxation.

9. Erin Ijesha Waterfalls – Osun State

Also known as Olumirin Waterfalls, this beautiful cascade in Osun State is a popular destination for nature lovers. See other Waterfalls in Nigeria.

10. Aso Rock – Abuja

Aso Rock is a prominent rock outcrop in Abuja, serving as a backdrop to Nigeria's presidential villa, the National Assembly, and the Supreme Court.

11. Yankari National Park – Bauchi State

Yankari National Park in Bauchi State is one of Nigeria's most popular wildlife reserves, home to elephants, lions, and various bird species.

Advertisements

12. Tinapa Resort – Cross River State

Tinapa Resort in Calabar, Cross River State, is a business and leisure resort offering shopping, entertainment, and a water park.

13. Freedom Park – Lagos

Freedom Park in Lagos is a memorial and leisure park, once a colonial-era prison. It's now a cultural site hosting events, exhibitions, and performances.

14. Agodi Gardens – Oyo State

Agodi Gardens in Ibadan, Oyo State, is a peaceful park with lush greenery, a mini zoo, and a water park, ideal for family outings. See Fun In Ibadan: 15 Popular Places For Hangout

Advertisements

15. Gurara Falls – Niger State

Gurara Falls in Niger State is a stunning waterfall that cascades down into a river. It's a perfect spot for picnics and photography.

16. Tarkwa Bay Beach – Lagos

Tarkwa Bay Beach in Lagos is an accessible and family-friendly beach, popular for swimming, surfing, and relaxation. See other beautiful beaches in Lagos.

17. Jos Wildlife Park – Plateau State

Located in Jos, Plateau State, this park is a large zoological garden featuring various animals, including lions, elephants, and birds.

18. Omenka Gallery – Lagos

Omenka Gallery in Lagos showcases contemporary African art and serves as a platform for artists to display their work.

Advertisements

19. Badagry Slave Trade Route – Lagos

This historical site in Badagry, Lagos, offers a glimpse into Nigeria's past, particularly the transatlantic slave trade.

20. Kajuru Castle – Kaduna State

Kajuru Castle in Kaduna State is a medieval-style castle built by a German expatriate. It's now a popular location for tourists and events.

21. Alok Ikom Monoliths – Cross River State

The Alok Ikom Monoliths in Cross River State are ancient stone carvings scattered across the Ikom area. These monoliths are believed to be the remnants of an ancient civilization and are a significant archaeological site.

22. Jabi Lake – Abuja

Jabi Lake in Abuja is a serene spot perfect for boating, picnics, and relaxation, with nearby shopping and entertainment options.

Advertisements

23. Millennium Park – Abuja

Millennium Park is the largest public park in Abuja, offering lush greenery, walking paths, and a place to unwind in the capital city.

24. Coconut Beach – Lagos

Coconut Beach in Badagry, Lagos, is famous for its coconut trees and scenic views, making it a perfect spot for relaxation. See other Beaches in Badagry.

25. Ibeno Beach – Akwa Ibom State

Ibeno Beach is one of the longest beaches in West Africa, located in Akwa Ibom State. It's ideal for beach sports and relaxation.

Advertisements

26. Lekki Beach – Lagos

Lekki Beach in Lagos is a popular destination for tourists and locals, offering beautiful ocean views and beachside entertainment.

See>>> Top Beaches to Visit In Lekki

27. Eyo Festival – Lagos

The Eyo Festival is a unique cultural event held in Lagos, featuring a parade of masqueraders dressed in white robes and hats, symbolizing spirits of the dead.

Advertisements

28. New Afrika Shrine – Lagos

New Afrika Shrine in Lagos is a live music venue dedicated to the late Fela Kuti, the pioneer of Afrobeat music. It's a cultural and entertainment hub.

29. Osun-Osogbo Sacred Grove – Osun State

This UNESCO World Heritage Site in Osogbo, Osun State, is a sacred forest that houses shrines, sculptures, and the annual Osun-Osogbo Festival.

30. Oguta Lake Holiday Complex – Imo State

Oguta Lake in Imo State is a picturesque freshwater lake offering boating, fishing, and relaxation at its surrounding resort.

31. IITA Forest Reserve – Oyo State

The IITA Forest Reserve in Ibadan, Oyo State, is a protected area dedicated to research and conservation, ideal for nature walks and bird watching.

Advertisements

32. Obudu Mountain Resort – Cross River State

Obudu Mountain Resort in Cross River State is a beautiful highland area offering cool temperatures, stunning views, and outdoor activities.

33. Abuja National Mosque – Abuja

The Abuja National Mosque is an architectural masterpiece and a major Islamic religious site in Nigeria's capital.

34. Lekki Ikoyi Link Bridge – Lagos

This iconic bridge in Lagos connects the Lekki and Ikoyi districts. It's also a popular spot for jogging and photography.

Advertisements

35. Port Harcourt Tourist Beach – Rivers State

Port Harcourt Tourist Beach in Rivers State is a man-made beach that offers leisure activities and beautiful views of the Bonny River.

36. Emotan Statue – Edo State

The Emotan Statue in Benin City, Edo State, is a tribute to the legendary market woman who played a significant role in the ancient Benin Kingdom.

37. Oron Museum – Akwa Ibom State

The Oron Museum in Akwa Ibom State houses one of the oldest collections of wooden sculptures in Africa, along with other cultural artifacts.

38. Ahmadu Bello University Zoo – Kaduna State

The zoo at Ahmadu Bello University in Zaria, Kaduna State, is home to various animals and serves as an educational resource for students and visitors.

Advertisements

39. Yola Park – Adamawa State

Yola Park in Adamawa State is a recreational area offering a place for relaxation and outdoor activities amidst the natural beauty of the region.

40. Ibom Tropicana Entertainment Centre – Akwa Ibom State

This entertainment complex in Uyo, Akwa Ibom State, includes a cinema, shopping mall, hotel, and water park, providing fun for all ages.

41. Ojude Oba Festival – Ogun State

The Ojude Oba Festival is a cultural event held annually in Ijebu Ode, Ogun State, featuring parades, horse riding, and traditional music.

42. Ikom Monoliths – Cross River State

These ancient stone structures in Ikom, Cross River State, are believed to have spiritual significance and are inscribed with mysterious symbols.

Advertisements

43. Sukur Cultural Landscape – Adamawa State

Sukur Cultural Landscape in Adamawa State is a UNESCO World Heritage Site that showcases a thriving traditional society with terraced fields, ancient stone structures, and a rich cultural heritage.

44. Elegushi Beach – Lagos

Elegushi Beach in Lagos is a lively beach known for its nightlife, music, and beachside bars, making it a popular spot for young people.

45. The Cathedral Church of Christ – Lagos

This historic church in Lagos is one of the oldest in Nigeria, with stunning architecture and a serene atmosphere.

46. Eko Atlantic City – Lagos

Eko Atlantic City is a new coastal city being built on reclaimed land in Lagos. It's set to become a major financial hub and tourist destination.

Advertisements

47. Confluence of Rivers Niger and Benue – Kogi State

This natural landmark in Kogi State is where the two largest rivers in Nigeria, the Niger and the Benue, meet, creating a stunning confluence.

48. Nike Lake Resort – Enugu State

Nike Lake Resort in Enugu State offers serene lake views and luxurious accommodation, making it a perfect getaway spot.

49. Mambilla Plateau – Taraba State

Mambilla Plateau in Taraba State is a highland region with breathtaking landscapes, cool temperatures, and tea plantations.

50. Kwame Nkrumah Mausoleum – Niger State

This mausoleum in Niger State honors Kwame Nkrumah, the first President of Ghana, who played a significant role in Africa's independence movements.

Advertisements

51. National War Museum – Abia State

Located in Umuahia, Imo State, this museum houses relics from the Nigerian Civil War, offering insights into the country's history.

52. Zik's Mausoleum – Anambra State

Zik's Mausoleum in Onitsha, Anambra State, is the final resting place of Nigeria's first president, Nnamdi Azikiwe, and a site of national importance.

53. Kainji National Park – Niger State

Kainji National Park in Niger State is home to diverse wildlife, including elephants, lions, and antelopes, and features the Kainji Lake.

54. Ijele Masquerade Festival – Anambra State

The Ijele Masquerade Festival in Anambra State celebrates the Ijele, the largest masquerade in Igbo culture, known for its elaborate costumes and performances.

Advertisements

55. Ezeagu Tourist Complex – Enugu State

Ezeagu Tourist Complex in Enugu State features waterfalls, caves, and a lake, offering a mix of adventure and relaxation.

56. Kofar Mata Dye Pits – Kano State

The Kofar Mata Dye Pits in Kano State are historic pits used for traditional dyeing techniques, particularly for the production of indigo cloth.

57. Kano City Walls – Kano State

The Kano City Walls in Kano State are ancient defensive walls that once protected the city. They are a testament to the city's historical significance.

58. Gashaka Gumti National Park – Taraba State

Gashaka Gumti National Park in Taraba State is the largest national park in Nigeria, offering diverse wildlife and beautiful landscapes.

Advertisements

59. Ogbaukwu Caves and Waterfalls – Anambra State

Ogbaukwu Caves and Waterfalls in Anambra State are a natural wonder, offering a serene environment for exploration and relaxation.

60. Shere Hills – Plateau State

Shere Hills in Plateau State are a range of undulating hills that offer hiking opportunities and stunning views of the surrounding landscape.

61. Port Harcourt Pleasure Park – Rivers State

This park in Port Harcourt, Rivers State, offers recreational activities, including boating, jogging tracks, and a mini-golf course.

62. Iho Eleru Cave – Ondo State

Iho Eleru Cave in Ondo State is an archaeological site where ancient human remains and artifacts have been discovered, offering insights into early human history.

Advertisements

63. Bayelsa State Ecumenical Centre – Bayelsa State

This centre in Bayelsa State is an impressive architectural structure serving as a place of worship and a tourist attraction.

64. Okomu National Park – Edo State

Okomu National Park in Edo State is a forest reserve home to endangered species like the white-throated monkey and forest elephants.

65. Edo State Government House – Edo State

The Edo State Government House in Benin City is the official residence of the Governor of Edo State and a historical landmark.

66. Oguta Lake – Imo State

Oguta Lake in Imo State is the largest natural lake in southeastern Nigeria, offering boat rides and scenic views.

Advertisements

67. Idanre Hills – Ondo State

Idanre Hills in Ondo State are a UNESCO World Heritage Site, known for their ancient steps, cultural history, and panoramic views.

68. Port Harcourt Zoo – Rivers State

Port Harcourt Zoo in Rivers State is a small but charming zoo, home to various animals and a favorite spot for families.

69. Zuma Memorial – Niger State

Zuma Memorial in Niger State honours the late President Umaru Musa Yar'Adua and is located near the famous Zuma Rock.

70. Jabi Boat Club – Abuja

Jabi Boat Club in Abuja is a lakeside club offering boating, dining, and relaxation with beautiful views of Jabi Lake.

Advertisements

71. Royal Palace of Oba of Benin – Edo State

The Royal Palace of the Oba of Benin in Edo State is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, representing the historic and cultural heritage of the Benin Kingdom. It is one of the oldest and most prestigious traditional palaces in Nigeria.

72. Queen Amina's Wall – Kaduna State

Queen Amina's Wall in Kaduna State is a historical fortification built by the legendary Queen Amina of Zazzau in the 16th century. The walls are a symbol of her military prowess and the ancient kingdom's strength.

73. Ancient Kano City Walls – Kano State

The Ancient Kano City Walls in Kano State are centuries-old defensive walls that once protected the city. These historic walls are an architectural marvel and a testament to Kano's rich history.

74. Ngwo Pine Forest – Enugu State

Ngwo Pine Forest in Enugu State is a scenic forest known for its towering pine trees, cool atmosphere, and hidden caves, making it a popular spot for picnics and nature walks.

Advertisements

75. Awhum Waterfall – Enugu State

Awhum Waterfall in Enugu State is a beautiful cascade located within a monastery. The waterfall is believed to have healing powers, attracting visitors seeking spiritual and physical rejuvenation.

76. The Giant Footprint of Ukhuse Oke – Edo State

The Giant Footprint of Ukhuse Oke in Edo State is a mysterious large footprint embedded in a rock, believed to be that of a prehistoric giant. It is a site of wonder and local legend.

77. Gashaka-Gumti National Park – Taraba State

Gashaka-Gumti National Park in Taraba State is the largest national park in Nigeria, offering diverse wildlife, including chimpanzees and elephants, and stunning landscapes ideal for nature enthusiasts.

Top 10 Tourist Centres in Nigeria

1. Obudu Mountain Resort – Cross River State

Obudu Mountain Resort is a breathtaking destination in Cross River State, known for its cool climate, lush greenery, and stunning landscapes. It's perfect for hiking, bird watching, and enjoying nature.

Advertisements

2. Yankari National Park – Bauchi State

Yankari National Park is Nigeria's premier wildlife park, offering visitors the chance to see elephants, baboons, and other wildlife. The park also features the Wikki Warm Spring, which is ideal for a relaxing swim.

3. Olumo Rock – Abeokuta, Ogun State

Olumo Rock is a historic site in Abeokuta, known for its role as a fortress during ancient wars. Visitors can explore the rock's tunnels, climb to the top for panoramic views, and learn about the history of the Egba people.

4. Ogbunike Caves – Anambra State

Ogbunike Caves are a network of caves in Anambra State with significant historical and spiritual importance. The caves have been in use for centuries and offer a unique exploration experience.

5. Aso Rock – Abuja

Aso Rock is an iconic rock formation in Abuja, representing Nigeria's unity. It is home to important government buildings, including the Presidential Complex, and offers stunning views of the city.

Advertisements

6. Ngwo Pine Forest and Awhum Waterfall – Enugu State

Ngwo Pine Forest and Awhum Waterfall are beautiful natural attractions in Enugu State. The pine forest offers serene walks, while Awhum Waterfall is known for its stunning cascade and spiritual significance.

7. Zuma Rock – Niger State

Zuma Rock is a massive monolith located near Abuja, famous for its natural face-like formation. It is often referred to as the "Gateway to Abuja" and is a symbol of strength and pride for the local Gwari people.

8. Erin Ijesha Waterfalls (Olumirin Waterfalls) – Osun State

Erin Ijesha Waterfalls, also known as Olumirin Waterfalls, is a spectacular seven-tiered waterfall in Osun State. The falls are surrounded by lush vegetation, offering a refreshing and serene environment for visitors.

9. Osun-Osogbo Sacred Grove – Osun State

The Osun-Osogbo Sacred Grove is a UNESCO World Heritage Site in Osun State, known for its cultural and spiritual significance. The grove is a sacred forest dedicated to the Yoruba goddess Osun, featuring shrines, sculptures, and artworks.

Advertisements

10. Idanre Hills – Ondo State

Idanre Hills is a UNESCO World Heritage Site known for its ancient steps, cultural landmarks, and stunning landscapes. The hills offer a rewarding climb with historical sites and panoramic views at the summit.

Conclusion

Nigeria's tourist centres offer a wide variety of experiences, from cultural festivals and historic sites to natural wonders and modern attractions. Whether you're interested in exploring the country's rich history, enjoying the beauty of nature, or relaxing on a beach, Nigeria has something to offer. These 70+ destinations are just a glimpse into the many treasures awaiting discovery in this various and vibrant country.

Are you ready to find your dream property or make a smart investment? Connect with me for the latest updates, tips, and exclusive offers.

- Follow me on TikTok for quick tips and behind-the-scenes tours
- Subscribe to my YouTube channel for in-depth videos and property showcases
- Follow me on Facebook for updates, listings, and real estate advice

Join my community today and stay ahead in the world of real estate.

« PREVIOUS

Top 10 Places to Meet Rich Guys in Ibadan- Your Ultimate Guide to Socializing with the Elite

NEXT »

Famous Tourist Sites In Lagos- 20 Places You Can't Miss

BE THE FIRST TO COMMENT

Leave a Reply

Your email address will not be published.

Comment

Name *

Email *

Website

Save my name, email, and website in this browser for the next time I comment.

POST COMMENT

Get In Touch

164 Isolo Rd, Lagos

Call or WhatsApp: 09051320626